WHITE Mass

The White Mass is the traditional name given for the Mass for medical professionals, drawn from the white coats that physicians still wear and the white uniforms worn by nurses in times past. St. Luke was an educated Greek physician, author of the Gospel of St. Luke and a companion of the Apostle Paul who remained with him when he was imprisoned in Rome. He is a worthy patron of the medical profession.

Tuesday, October 18, 2022 (Feast of St. Luke)

Followed by a light supper and talk by Sr. Edith Mary Hart, RSM, DO, FAAFP
“Caring For the Human Person While Preparing the Soul”

As Christian believers, we know that the end of life is about more than medical decisions and advance directives. Sr./Dr. Hart will also discuss the preparation of our souls when facing the challenging passage to eternal life. Sr./Dr. Hart is a Religious Sister of Mercy and primary care doctor in the Diocese of Phoenix who has served as a hospice medical director.
